

Topic

Conversation for Advanced

Lesson 3
Beauty

A

“Beauty is in the eye of the beholder.”

How do you define beauty?

Target Language

Introduce the learning goals to the student.

In this lesson, we will talk about

beauty:

- read an article about forms of beauty;
- learn words and expressions about beauty in the passage;
- share your thoughts about different forms of beauty.

Key words:

- | | |
|------------------|--------------------|
| 1. outer beauty | 5. appreciate |
| 2. inner beauty | 6. solace |
| 3. scenic beauty | 7. stimulates |
| 4. timeless | 8. characteristics |

Reading

Read the passage and pay attention to the key words.

How do people define beauty? What does it take to be beautiful? Above all, what is beauty? Every individual has different ways of explaining what beauty is. Beauty can take on many different forms: outer beauty, inner beauty, scenic beauty, or even the beauty of an event and many more.

Comprehension Check:

1. Name some forms of beauty in the passage.

Reading

Read the passage and pay attention to the key words.

For a lot of people, outer beauty, which is thought to be something you are born with, is considered to be the most important. It is what stimulates the mind. For example, when you meet people for the first time, you immediately notice their physical appearance, including the clothes they wear.

On the other hand, some say beauty comes from within people's hearts. Inner beauty will last forever and will never fade. In contrast, outer beauty fades over time. A person's characteristics or behavior is what others would remember compared to a person's physical appearance.

Comprehension Check:

- 2. What do people immediately notice when they meet someone for the first time?*
- 3. What would other people remember than a person's physical appearance?*

Reading

Read the passage and pay attention to the key words.

However, beauty is also found in nature such as the sunset or the sunrise. One finds joy and solace by looking at the scenic views that nature offers. Many people usually make memories by recalling the events and relating them to the surroundings that they see. Thus, making it timeless. The idea and standard of beauty have greatly changed throughout time. It takes a certain kind of quality to appreciate the true meaning of beauty.

Comprehension Check:

4. What do we call the beauty found in nature?
5. How does natural scenery benefit people?

Respond to Reading

Complete the task.

☐ Choose the correct words to complete the sentences.

scenic beauty

inner beauty

outer beauty

1. _____ will last forever and will never fade.
2. Beauty is also found in nature such as the sunset or the sunrise.
It is called _____.
3. In contrast, _____ fades over time.

Free Talk

Read the facts and share your opinions.

Types of Beauty

outer scenic inner

- Talk about the different forms of beauty and think about which type of beauty matters the most.
- Do you think the standard of beauty is the same today as it was 100 years ago? If not, how has it changed?

Summary

Make a summary of the topic you have learned today.

There's no exact definition of beauty because one can get to decide what is beautiful. Thus the saying, "Beauty is in the eye of the beholder."

Please make a summary of what beauty is to you.

Use some of the words you have learned.

- | | |
|------------------|--------------------|
| 1. outer beauty | 5. appreciate |
| 2. inner beauty | 6. solace |
| 3. scenic beauty | 7. stimulates |
| 4. timeless | 8. characteristics |

Your opinion...

.....
.....