

Topic

Conversation
for Beginners

Lesson 6
Dessert

A

-
- A tray of desserts. In the foreground, there are several slices of chocolate cake with white cream and chocolate shavings. Behind them are several glass jars filled with yellow fruit compote and topped with fresh fruit like raspberries, blueberries, and strawberries. Each jar has a small metal spoon. In the background, there are more chocolate cake slices.
- What are these?
 - What's your favorite dessert?

In this lesson, we will learn about desserts:

- name some desserts;
- tell what flavors some desserts have;
- learn how and when some desserts are served;
- practice expressions to talk about some desserts.

Key words:

cake
ice cream
pudding
waffle

Key Words

Learn the new words and match.

- cake
- ice cream

- pudding
- waffle

Vocabulary Check

Encircle the dessert being defined.

The Dessert Table

1. We use a waffle iron to make it.
2. It is usually served on birthdays.
3. It is either baked, steamed or boiled.
4. People like to eat it when the weather is hot.

Key Sentences

Read and share your opinions.

1. I had a slice of chocolate cake for dessert.

Question:

What did you have for dessert last time?

Key Sentences

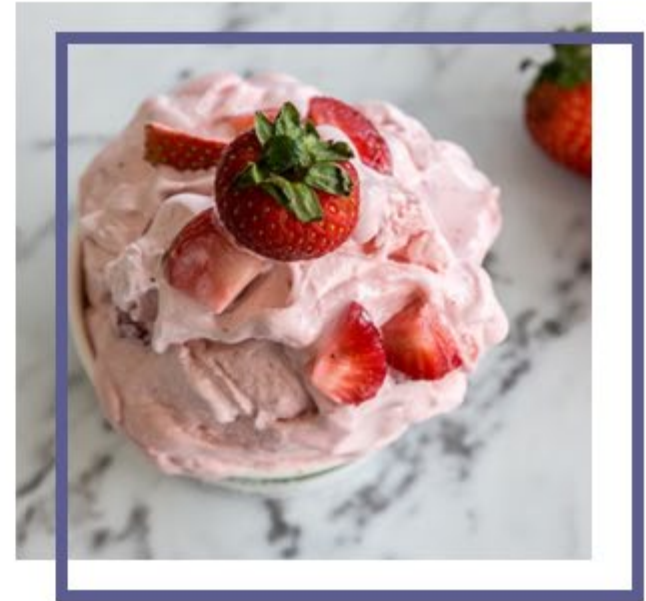

Read and share your opinions.

2. Strawberry is my favorite flavor of ice cream.

Questions:

1. What's your favorite flavor of ice cream?
2. My favorite flavor of ice cream is (chocolate).

What do you think of (chocolate) ice cream?

Key Sentences

Read and share your opinions.

3. Puddings are either baked, steamed or boiled .

Questions:

1. Have you tried eating pudding?
How are they served?
2. Which way of cooking is healthier?
Why do you think so?

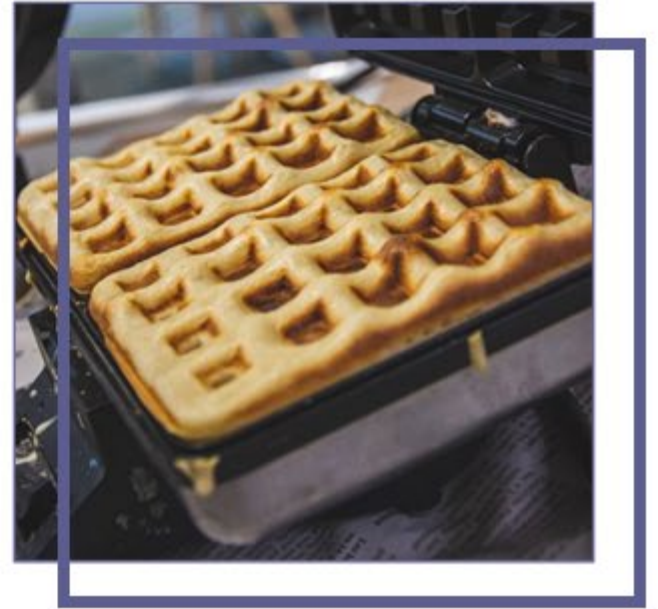

Key Sentences

Read and share your opinions.

4. We use a waffle iron to make waffles.

Questions:

1. What do we use to make waffles?
2. Are waffles best served with hot drinks or cold drinks?

Conversation

Listen to the audio and do a role play.

Mary asks Yuka about her dinner with John.

Mary

Yuka, how's your dinner with John?

It was great.

Mary

Good. What do you think of the food?

I think it was really good. We should go there some time.

Mary

Sure. What did you have for dessert?

I had a slice of chocolate cake for dessert.

Yuka

Yuka

Yuka

Semi-open Role Play

Have a role play with your teacher with the given scenario and hints.

Scenario

The party is over. You and your friend talk about the food and desserts. Share your opinions with your friend.

- Hints:
- How's your...?
 - It was...
 - I think the food was ...
 - What did you have...?
 - I had...

Review

Answer the following questions about desserts.

Self-check

MENU
cake	$5.00
ice cream	$4.35
pudding	$4.95
waffle	$3.25

The New Café Crew

You work as a new crew in a dessert café.
Answer your customer's questions.

Note: The teacher acts as the customer.

1. What desserts do you have?
2. It's hot. I want something cold. What can I have?
3. I want something with fruits. What can I have?
4. It's my birthday. What can I have?
5. What do you use to make waffles?