

TOPIC

Conversation for Beginners

B

1 Language Target

In this lesson, we will talk about:

- what animals we see at home;
- how to choose a good pet;
- why people want pets.

Pets

2 Key Sentences

Scan and Listen

1. Seeing my dog puts a smile on my face.

● _____

2. My cat loves it when I give him a massage.

_____ ●

3. This bird wants me to give it food.

● _____

4. The little hamster is waiting for a treat.

_____ ●

Conversation

Yuka: John, is that your dog?

John: Yes. He's Ford. I love him so much. Seeing my dog puts a smile on my face.

Yuka: He's so cute. Can I touch him?

John: Sure. Touch his ears. He loves it when I touch his ears.

Yuka: You're right. What a sweet dog!

1 Language Target

In this lesson, we will talk about:

- the animals we see on a farm;
- more common expressions;
- what life on the farm is like;

Farm Animals

2 Key Sentences

1. Cows usually feed on grass.

2. There are pigs on my grandfather's farm.

3. The chickens are looking for food on the ground.

4. My grandpa will teach me how to ride a horse.

Scan and Listen

Conversation

John: Is this your first time on a farm, Yuka?

Yuka: Yes, it is. Look! What are those cows doing on the field?

John: They're looking for something to eat. Cows usually feed on grass.

Yuka: I see. Is that a horse?

John: Yes, it is. Come on. I will teach you how to ride a horse.

1 Language Target

In this lesson, we will talk about:

- what animals we can see in the zoo;
- how to describe animals;
- how to give an opinion.

Zoo Animals

2 Key Sentences

Scan and Listen

1. A tiger has big teeth.

2. That monkey looks angry.

3. I think that koala is looking at me.

4. My little rabbit wants to play with me.

Conversation

Yuka: I went to the zoo yesterday. It was fun!

John: What animal do you like in the zoo?

Yuka: I like the tiger! It has big teeth.

John: I think tigers are scary. I like koalas.

Yuka: Why do you like koalas?

John: Because koalas look cute.

1 Language Target

In this lesson, we will talk about:

- some animals we can find in the sea;
- what sea animals are like;
- useful expressions in daily conversation.

Sea Animals

2 Key Sentences

1. You can see plenty of fish in the sea.

2. I'm afraid of sharks because they can hurt us.

3. Dolphins are playful sea animals.

4. The whale we saw yesterday was as big as a truck.

Scan and Listen

Conversation

John: My cousin and I will go scuba diving next week. Do you want to join?

Yuka: Thanks, but I'll pass.

John: Why? It's going to be fun. You can see plenty of fish in the sea.

Yuka: Plenty of sharks too, and I'm afraid of sharks.

John: Come on. We won't go to places with sharks.

Yuka: I'm sorry, but I'm not going.

1 Language Target

In this lesson, we will talk about:

- what common insects we see;
- more common expressions;
- what insects do.

Insects

2 Key Sentences

1. I get scared when a butterfly is near my face.

2. I want to get rid of these mosquitoes.

3. Bees suck nectar from flowers to make honey.

4. Help me get this ant off my hair.

Scan and Listen

Conversation

Yuka: It's a lovely day today, and there aren't many people here at the park.

John: Yeah, it feels great. Look, there's a butterfly on your shoulder.

Yuka: Where?! Get it off me!

John: Relax. It's not going to hurt you.

Yuka: I know, but I get scared when a butterfly is near my face.

John: Don't worry. It will fly off if you don't move.

1 Language Target

In this lesson, we will talk about:

- what we see in nature;
- how to make a suggestion;
- more expressions we can use daily.

Nature

2 Key Sentences

1. I can't wait to go camping on the mountain next month.

2. The forest is such a mysterious place.

3. How about we go to a desert in Egypt this summer?

4. Before we sail the ocean, we will need to prepare a boat and some food.

Scan and Listen

Conversation

John: Let's go camping on a mountain, Yuka. That'd be a fun summer experience!

Yuka: I don't enjoy camping. How about we go to a desert in Egypt this summer?

John: I went to the desert in Egypt last year.

Yuka: Oh, really? How about we go to a forest and take pictures of trees and animals?

John: That's a good idea!

1 Language Target

In this lesson, we will talk about:

- the different kinds of weather;
- what we can do in a certain weather;
- more useful expressions.

Weather

2 Key Sentences

1. It's a good idea to go out and do something when it's sunny.

2. A rainy day makes me want to stay at home and sleep all day.

3. There's no need to bring an umbrella when it's cloudy.

4. For me, snowy days are the best!

Scan and Listen

Conversation

John: It's a beautiful day outside. Let's go out for a walk!

Yuka: No thanks. I'll just stay here and sleep.

John: You can't just sleep. It's a good idea to go out and do something when it's sunny, you know.

Yuka: Okay! But let's eat some ice cream before we get back home.

John: Sure! Let's go.

1 Language Target

In this lesson, we will talk about:

- the four different seasons in a year;
- what activities we can do in some seasons;
- more expressions we can use daily.

Seasons

2 Key Sentences

1. We will see the flowers bloom in spring.

2. We can hardly see snow in summer.

3. It feels good to walk around the forest during autumn season.

4. It gets colder and colder in winter.

Scan and Listen

Conversation

Yuka: So, where would we go on our holiday?

John: How about we go to my hometown in autumn?

Yuka: What will we do there?

John: We will walk in a forest with colorful leaves on the ground. You'd love it.

Yuka: Absolutely! You know me well. It feels good to walk around the forest during the autumn season.

1 Language Target

In this lesson, we will talk about:

- the different kinds of flowers;
- some information about the flowers;
- more useful expressions;

Flowers

2 Key Sentences

1. It would be nice if someone would give me a rose on my birthday.

2. They say that the lotus plant brings good luck.

3. Oh no! I forgot to water my sunflower at home!

4. Japan is famous for its cherry blossoms and many tourists love to take pictures of it.

Scan and Listen

Conversation

- John: Wow! Look at all these flowers.
Yuka: The sunflowers look so beautiful!
John: And the roses are so red and pretty.
Yuka: It'd be nice if someone would give me a rose on my birthday.
John: Let's pick some roses and bring them home.
Yuka: Don't! We shouldn't pick any flowers from the field.

1 Language Target

In this lesson, we will talk about:

- the different kinds of disasters we face;
- what to do when facing such disasters;
- more expressions we can use daily.

Disasters

2 Key Sentences

1. Because of the earthquake, many houses were destroyed.

2. I wish somebody could rescue us from this flood.

3. It's my first time seeing a tornado.

4. What a strong typhoon! It will be difficult to go back home.

Scan and Listen

Conversation

Yuka: Look at the news, John. A very bad weather hits Boston.

John: Woah! What a strong typhoon!

Yuka: I wish somebody could rescue those people from the flood.

John: I should call my friends living in Boston to check if they're okay.

Yuka: They can't answer your call now. Just call them later.

John: Okay, you're right.

In this lesson, we will review the:

Key Words

Pets

dog cat bird hamster

Farm Animals

cow pig chicken horse

Zoo Animals

tiger monkey koala rabbit

Sea Animals

fish shark dolphin whale

Insects

butterfly mosquito bee
ant

Nature

mountain forest desert ocean

Weather

sunny rainy cloudy snowy

Seasons

spring summer autumn winter

Flowers

rose lotus sunflower
cherry blossoms

Disasters

earthquake flood tornado typhoon

Key Sentences

- 1 Seeing my dog puts a smile on my face.
- 2 Cows usually feed on grass.
- 3 How about we go to a desert in Egypt?
- 4 I get scared when a butterfly is near my face.
- 5 I wish somebody could rescue us from this flood.