Talking Further About Future Events 1

Simple Future

We use the simple future tense to show that something will happen or will be done at a certain point in the future.

Examples:

1. They will buy a book tomorrow.
2. Sandra will go to the city on Saturday.
3. Bob and I will play tennis later today.

“Will” and “shall” are both used to show future actions, but the word “will” is more common.
