

Producer: Anape

Proofreaders: Corden, Flavion, Garcia, Kanda, Keanu, Rapnel

ENGLISH PHONETICS

1

Lesson 47 /tʃ/

Listen to the words.

chair picture touch

Meet the
phonetic
symbol.

/tʃ/

Produce the sound.

/tʃ/

church, chair, child : [tʃ]

Do the correct
mouth
position.

stop the airflow
at first and then
release it

place the tip of the tongue
on the space behind the
upper front teeth

Words that have the /tʃ/ sound

chief teacher beach

cheese achieve march

ch

Words that have the /tʃ/ sound

nature fortune picture

future culture question

t

Words that have the /tʃ/ sound

pitch

ketchup

batch

catch

butcher

sketch

tch

Listen, repeat, and then read.

/tʃ/

chubby cheeks

a cheater witch

matching questions

check the suggestions

Listen, repeat, and then read.

/tʃ/

I'm fortunate to be rich.

She watched Pitch Perfect.

The teacher has a question.

Choose the cherry red chair.

Listen and tick (✓) all words with the /tʃ/ sound.

cheers

usual

fusion

Asia

picture

leisure

child

coach

sketch

Identify if both words have the /tʃ/ sound.

Y

N

1

chef

cheese

Y

N

2

watch

future

Y

N

3

beach

question

Y

N

4

chip

teacher

Y

N

5

nation

ketchup

Listen, read, and encircle the words with the /tʃ/ sound.

1 mix and match

2 an evil creature

3 the chirping birds

4 statue of liberty

5 future technology

6 the biggest church

Listen to the pronunciation trivia.

From Italy!

In Italian spelling, a 'c' in front of an 'e' or 'i' is pronounced with the /tʃ/ sound. Some English words follow this rule. For example, cello. Try it!

TONGUE TWISTER!

Chester chose to challenge Charlie to a cheese-eating contest.

WELL DONE!

Sound: /tʃ/

Spelling: ch, t, tch