Part 3 PRACTICE TEST

(Man) The head of accounting has suggested the company reduce its overheads due to the rising cost of gas.

(Woman) Yes, I understand. Did he identify in which areas specifically we could try to reduce overheads?

(Man) Well, he doesn't think we can cut staff wages at all. Rent is, of course, fixed. And our electricity bill is already low. He suggested we try to reduce travel expenses and also revise the overtime payment structure.

(Woman) I understand. I'm meeting with my team tomorrow so I'll talk to them and report back to you by the end of the week.

41. Why is it necessary to reduce the company's overheads?

- (A) The price of gas has increased.

- (B) By the end of the day.
- (C) Tomorrow.
- (D) Towards the end of the week.

- (Man) Julie, our paper suppliers have just doubled their delivery prices. Would you be able to look for a different company that could deliver to us?
- (Woman) Sure. Do you still want to buy the paper from the same company and just change who delivers it? Or do you want to change who we buy the paper from as well?
- (Man) Let's just change the delivery company and continue to buy the paper from them.
- (Woman) OK. I'll go online and find out about possible companies we could use.

44. Why is the man concerned?

- (A) His delivery is late.
- (B) Julie is at a different company.
- (C) The delivery price is now two times higher.
- (D) He needs to deliver some paper.

45. What does the man want to do?

- (A) Change both the paper supplier and the delivery company.
- (B) Change the delivery company but not the paper supplier.
- (C) Change the paper supplier but not the delivery company.
- (D) Change neither the paper supplier nor the delivery company.
