

---

DAY 5

Vocab Review

1. His name was Hansen, a common name in Norway.
2. He was duplicating some articles in the photocopy room.
3. He slowly inserted a small key into the lock.
4. Mowing lawns and taking out the trash are jobs for the tenant.
5. Many local businesses offered to contribute to the school rebuilding fund.
6. What is the potential pollution from landfill waste disposal?

Exercise 2

Answer key:

- (A) The sentence/ is/ a set/ of words/ standing/ on their own/ as a sense unit.//
(B) Most modern course materials/ include/ cassettes/ of listening texts.//
(C) I ate spice-rubbed ham,/ mashed potatoes,/ and a Christmas pudding/ for Christmas dinner.//
(D) The bookstore/on our campus/ sells cards. // In fact/, they have the best cards around. //
(E) Each module/ is composed/ of several separate units.//

DICTION

1. A severe drought ruined the crops.
2. He faces six months in jail and a heavy fine.
3. The local residents were angry at the lack of parking spaces.
4. The judge imposed the death penalty on both men.
5. Some factories were closed to conserve energy.
6. Millions of viewers tuned in to Radio Australia to learn the election results.