☉ WORDS IN CONTEXT

Answer Key:

Job Offers 2.

After finding (relevant) salary data, you need to check it with a (critical) eye. Salaries for similar jobs can (vary) according to differences in (geographic) location, and years of experience. Another (factor) to keep in mind is to check the average (going rate) for that job. When you (negotiate) for a higher salary, make sure you (articulate) how you (exceed) what they are looking for. (Highlight) your unique skills, and the (revenue) you will help (generate). I would be (cautious) about (accepting) a job that does not provide benefits such as health and (dental) insurance. If you have no (coverage), health insurance and other benefits are very expensive.
