I'LL STAND BY YOU
Pretenders

Oh, why gotta' you look so sad?
Tears are in your eyes
Come on and come to me now
Don't be ashamed to cry
Let me see you through
'Cause I've seen the dark side too

When the night falls on you
You don't know what to do
Nothin' you confess, could make me love you less

I'll stand by you, I'll stand by you
Won't let nobody hurt you
I'll stand by you

So, if you're mad, get mad
Don't hold it all inside
Come on and talk to me now
Hey, what you got to hide?
I get angry too
Well I'm a lot like you

When you're standing at the crossroads
And don't know which path to choose
Let me come along
'Cause even if you're wrong

I'll stand by you, I'll stand by you
Won't let nobody hurt you
I'll stand by you

Take me in, into your darkest hour
 And I'll never desert you
 I'll stand by you

And when, when the night falls on you, baby
 You're feelin' all alone
 You won't be on your own

I'll stand by you, I'll stand by you
 Won't let nobody hurt you
 I'll stand by you
 Take me in, into your darkest hour
 And I'll never desert you
 I'll stand by you, I'll stand by you
 Won't let nobody hurt you
 I'll stand by you
 Yeah

Won't let nobody hurt you
 I'll stand by you
 I'll stand by you
 I'll stand by you
 No, no, no, no, no
 Take me in, into your darkest hour
 And I'll never desert you
 I will stand by you

When I see you again

All the planes we flew
Good things we've been through
That I'll be standing right here talking to you
'Bout another path
I know we loved to hit the road and laugh
But something told me that it wouldn't last
Had to switch up
Look at things different, see the bigger picture
Those were the days
Hard work forever pays
Now I see you in a better place (see you in a better place)

Uh

How can we not talk about family when family's all that we got?
Everything I went through you were standing there by my side
And now you gon' be with me for the last ride

III. Listening

Listen to the song 'Count On Me' by Bruno Mars. Take note of the If sentences.

COUNT ON ME

Bruno Mars

[Verse 1:]

Oh uh-huh

If you ever find yourself stuck in the middle of the sea
I'll sail the world to find you

If you ever find yourself lost in the dark and you can't see
I'll be the light to guide you

We find out what we're made of
When we are called to help our friends in need

[Chorus:]

You can count on me like 1, 2, 3

I'll be there

And I know when I need it

I can count on you like 4, 3, 2

And you'll be there

'Cause that's what friends are supposed to do, oh yeah
Ooooooh, oooohhh yeah, yeah

[Verse 2:]

If you're tossin' and you're turnin'

And you just can't fall asleep

I'll sing a song beside you

And if you ever forget how much you really mean to me

Every day I will remind you

Oooh

We find out what we're made of
When we are called to help our friends in need

[Chorus:]

You can count on me like 1, 2, 3

I'll be there

And I know when I need it

I can count on you like 4, 3, 2

And you'll be there

'Cause that's what friends are supposed to do, oh yeah
Ooooooh, oooohhh yeah, yeah

FOUR

You'll always have my shoulder when you cry
I'll never let go, never say goodbye
You know...

I can count on you like 4, 3, 2
And you'll be there
'Cause that's what friends are supposed to do, oh yeah
Ooooooh, ooooohh

You can count on me 'cause I can count on you

III. Discussion

1st Conditional

QUESTION: What are the If sentences in the song?

ex.

If you ever find yourself stuck in the middle of the sea,
I'll sail the world to find you

STRUCTURE:

IF + PRESENT SIMPLE + WILL + PRESENT SIMPLE
WILL + PRESENT SIMPLE + if + PRESENT SIMPLE

*Even though this sentence structure is used to talk about the future, the condition clause If I eat too much... uses the simple present tense.

It is used to talk about a result that is likely to happen or is almost certain to happen in the future if the condition in the If clause occurs.

POSSIBILITIES

- You'll miss the train if you don't hurry!
- If I miss the train today, I'll drive to work.

SUPERSTITIONS

- If you see a penny on the ground and pick it up, it will bring you good luck!
- If you break a mirror, you will have 7 years of bad luck!

FUTURE PLANS

- If you're going shopping today, I'll come with you!
- If you can get me a ticket, I'll go to the concert with you!

WARNINGS & THREATS

- If you don't come to my birthday party, I'll never speak to you again.
- If you eat too much ice cream, you'll make yourself sick!

The 1st conditional sentence structure can also be used to talk about the future.

You can use conjunctions of time [when, before, after, as soon as, until] instead of if in the condition / dependent clause. They are always followed by the present simple tense.

Before

- I'll finish this report before I leave tonight.

After

- I'll eat dinner after I finish my homework

Until

- I'll sit outside until it gets dark.

As soon as

- I'll wash the dishes as soon as this TV show is over.

When

- I'll wash the dishes when my TV show is over.
- When I have saved enough money, I'll buy a car!
- When I have saved enough money, I'm going to buy a car!

III. Discussion

2nd Conditional

What would you think if I sang out of tune,
Would you stand up and walk out on me?

QUESTION: Do you think it is actually likely he will sing out of tune?

STRUCTURE

If + Simple Past + Modal + Base Verb
Modal + Base Verb + If + Simple Past

We use the second conditional to talk about situations or actions in the present or future which are not likely to happen or are imaginary, hypothetical or impossible.

IMPOSSIBLE/ HYPOTHETICAL SITUATIONS

- If my grandmother was alive, I would invite her to my wedding.
- If I were on the moon, I'd plant a coconut.

ADVICE

- If you had dengue fever, I would recommend you to drink mangagaw.
- If you were me, what would you do? [asking for advice]

UNLIKELY SITUATIONS

- If I won the lottery, I would buy a mansion.
- If I became a millionaire, I would travel around the world.

A. The 'if clause' can contain the PAST SIMPLE or the PAST CONTINUOUS.

- If I was still working in Brighton, I would commute by train.
- If she were coming, she would be here by now.
- If they were thinking of selling, I would want to buy.

A.1 A CONTINUOUS TENSE can be used in the IF CLAUSE...

- If I were working now, I'd have more money.
- If you were looking for a cheap computer, where would you shop?

A.2 ... and in the RESULT CLAUSE!

- If I had a better job, I wouldn't be living with my parents.
- We wouldn't be doing this if we didn't care about you!

B. The MAIN CLAUSE can contain 'WOULD', 'COULD' or 'MIGHT'.

- If I had the chance to do it again, I would do it differently.
- If we met up for lunch, we could go to that new restaurant.
- If I spoke to him directly, I might be able to persuade him.

B.1 COULD (= ability) can be used in the If clause (= 'were able to')...

- If I could go back in time and give myself advice, I'd tell myself not to worry so much about what other people think.
- It would be great if you could help us paint the house this weekend!
 (= a polite way to ask for help)

1st CONDITIONAL vs. 2nd CONDITIONAL

The choice between the first and the second conditional can often be a question of the speaker's attitude rather than of facts. Compare these examples: Otto thinks these things are possible or (fairly) likely to happen, whereas Peter thinks either they aren't possible or are (very) unlikely to happen.

Otto – If I win the lottery, I'll buy a big house.
Peter – If I won the lottery, I'd buy a big house.

Otto – If I get promoted, I'll throw a big party.
Peter – If I got promoted, I'd throw a big party.

Otto – If my team wins the Cup, I'll buy champagne for everybody.
Peter – If my team won the Cup, I'd buy champagne for everybody.
